

Rein Dance - CLAY MAIER CLINICS

Hosted by
COLE CREEK EQUESTRIAN CENTER
Kelseyville, Lake County

Clinic #1... Carriage Driving... January 28th & 29th

With a Meet-N-Greet Potluck Dinner Friday evening the 27th

For the beginner to the advanced driver...

Develop driving skills that will make both you and your horse more confident, safe and successful. Clay can introduce you to the basics of driving or let him help you with your specific driving goals.

Clinic #2... Long-Reining... February 4th & 5th

Foundation learning for almost any training goal...

This clinic takes both the horse and trainer through a series of easy to understand steps, building a foundation for almost any training goal. Learn techniques to develop more sensitive hands, find out how and why to teach lateral movement, lengthen stride or collection.

Clinic Tuition for each clinic: $150 for one day... $275 for both days

Auditors Welcome: $25 for one or both days

Each Student will receive a Rein Dance DVD & 2 Equi Partner T-Shirts.

Known in the horse world for The Friesian Spectacular, Clay Maier trains his performance horses and teaches clinics on long reining and carriage driving. Clay's clinics open new perspective from the ground that will also bring a new understanding in the saddle or carriage and cart. Clay's humble, quiet and modest teaching style helps students to relax and absorb the joys of horse training and companionship.

Sign up for one or both clinics by calling:
Cole Creek Equestrian Center, (707) 279-0915 or Susan McCarty, (707) 275-3365

For more information about Clay Maier and the Cole Creek Equestrian Center can be found on their respective websites:

<http://colecreekequestrian.com>

<http://www.claymaier.com>